

THE COURTS.

HELD IN $50,000 BAIL.

Charles L. Blood, who is advertised as the proprietor of certain patent medicines, was taken to the United States Marshal's office yesterday, having been arrested on a civil action begun in the United States District Court. The complaint charges that Blood sold in 1879, 1880 and 1881 a thousand bottles of a preparation known as "oxygenated air," for making which he said that he had a private formula, without having affixed the necessary stamp. The penalty for a violation of the law is $50 for each bottle sold without payment of the tax and Blood is held $50,000 bail. The complaint is made on information furnished by Joseph L. Garrison. One of Dr. Blood's advertisements shows by the International Patent Office gives his address as No. 106 Bleecker-st., subject "Man's Inevitable Enemy; Death in the Human Body." The Rev. Wm. Vampier, a Methodist Episcopalian, asserted that Dr. Blood had been responsible for a violation of the lottery laws and recently in Philadelphia on a requisition from the Governor of Massachusetts. It was while returning from Boston, after having given bail in the latter, that he was arrested by Deputy Marshal Bernier and Holmes.

TWO SETS OF COMMISSIONERS NAMED.

The Central Tunnel Railway Company was granted some time ago under the act of 1880 to construct an underground railway from the City Hall Park under Chambers, Reade, Elm, Spring and Grand Jorsses, to Lafayette-place, and thence under Ninth-st., and Fourth-st., to the Grand Central Depot. The General Term of the Supreme Court yesterday appointed William G. Choate, John T. Acrene and James McLean commissioners to take testimony and determine whether the proposed railway ought to be built, and if so, in what manner it should be so as to cause the least damage to private property and the public use of the streets along the line. The total assessed value of the adjoining property is $1,000,000, of which the owners of $400,000 have released to the contractor the construction of the road. The first meeting of commissioners will be held in the General Term room of the Supreme Court on February 10, at 1 p.m.

The same court also appointed another, ex-Judge John C. Brewster and John O'Brien to act as commissioners to assess the value of Rufus Story's interest in the street in front of his premises in Front-st. The street's owner by the New York and New-Haven Railroad Company, and, under the decision of the court of appeals, must pay Mr. Story for such occupancy.

A DISPUTE AS TO INTEREST ON BONDS.

Judge Barrett a few days ago granted a temporary injunction in favor of Amasa T. Kingman, a shareholder of the Rome, Waterbury and Ogdensburg Railway Company, restraining the directors of the company from paying the interest on certain bonds. It is alleged by the plaintiff that the interest is payable only out of the yearly earnings of the company, and that the earnings of a corporation are to be determined by the law of God and grace.
